COTTON MARKETS.

New York, August 16.—Taik of better weather in Texus caused sight recessions at the opening of the cotton market this morning, but offerings were very well absorbed, and when it was found that there had been no general rains in the Southwest prices firmed up with the active new crop positions selling into new high ground for the movement. The close was steady at a decline of 11 points on August, but gendecreases are shown in the exports from this country during July last, as compared with the previous July, of wheat, meat and dairy products, cotton, cattle, hogs and sheep and mineral oil. The greatest decrease was in wheat, which revealed a fall-ing off from 2.714,962 bushels sent abroad in July, 1909, to only $75,138 bushels this year. In cotton the de-crease was from 38,463,508 pounds to 58,258,064 pounds; in cattle, hogs and 58,258,054 pounds; in cattle, hogs and sheep, from $894,855 worth to $229,009 worth; in meat and dairy products, from $10,042,715 worth to $9,322,963 worth; and on mineral oil, from 126,570,782 gailons to 112,402,879 gailons. The total decrease in July exports of breadstuffs, meat and dairy products, cattle, sheep and hogs, cotton and mineral oil, was from $36,51,6331 to $30,005,001 worth; and for the seven months ending with July, as compared with the corresponding period of 1902, from $395,820,791 worth to $339,473,416 worth.

The only important articles showing an advance during July were corn, which rose from 739,313 bushels to 1,011,384 bushels, and wheat flour, which increased from 405,040 barrels to 489,828 barrels.
